Product Description

Absorbent 5 Layers Disposable Puppy Pads Agility Training Puppies / Small Dogs

Product Description:

Our Product Introduction

The disposable puppy pads are made up of 5 layers that are designed to provide maximum absorption and odour control. The top layer is made of a soft and comfortable material that quickly absorbs any liquid and keeps your pet dry. The second layer is also designed to absorb moisture and prevent any leakage. The third layer is made of super-absorbent polymers that can hold up to 6 cups of liquid. The fourth layer is a waterproof barrier that prevents any leakage and keeps your floor dry. The bottom layer is made of a non-slip material that keeps the pad in place and prevents any accidents.

These disposable odour control pet training pads are available in customized colours, making it easy to match them with your home decor. They are also available in different sizes to suit the needs of your pet. Whether you have a small puppy or a large dog, these training pads are perfect for all sizes.

These agility training products are perfect for pet owners who want to potty train their pets. They are also great for pets who are recovering from surgery or illness and need a hygienic and comfortable place to rest. These training pads are also perfect for pet owners who live in apartments or condos and don't have access to a yard.

Overall, the Disposable Puppy Pads are an essential product for any pet owner. They are easy to use, hygienic, and provide maximum absorption and odour control. Whether you are potty training your pet or need a comfortable place for them to rest, these training pads are perfect for you.
