Product Description

Disposable Underpad Other Name Adult Diaper Underpad Made In US America with Fluff Pulp

Product Description:

Our Product Introduction

Our Disposable Underpads have a water absorption capacity of 500ml or OEM, ensuring that any liquid is quickly absorbed and retained, leaving the surface dry. These Disposable Incontinence Underpads are perfect for use in hospitals, nursing homes, and for personal use at home.

Our Disposable Bed Underpads are made with high-quality fluff pulp, made in the US America, which quickly absorbs any liquid and locks it away, ensuring that the surface remains dry and comfortable.

These Disposable Underpads are perfect for everyday use and come in a convenient size that can be used for a wide range of purposes.

They are easy to use, simply place them on the bed or furniture, and they will do the rest.

Our Disposable Underpads are designed to be convenient and hassle-free. They are disposable, which means that after use, you can simply throw them away, making them perfect for use when traveling or in situations where washing and drying are not possible.

Our Disposable Underpads are perfect for those who suffer from incontinence, bedwetting, or other liquid accidents. They are also ideal for use during postpartum recovery, after surgery, or for anyone who needs extra protection against liquid accidents.

We are confident that you will love our Disposable Underpads, which is why we offer a free sample to all our customers. Try them out for yourself and discover why they are the perfect solution for all your incontinence needs.
