Applications:

Customable pet pads are an essential product for pet owners who want to effectively manage their pet's hygiene. These pet pads serve as a great tool for pet training, as they can absorb urine and control odor, making them an ideal solution for pet owners who want an easier time training their pets. They are suitable for dogs of all sizes and can be customized according to the needs of the pet owner.

The pet training pads can be used in various occasions and scenarios. They come in different sizes, including small, medium, large, and extra-large, making them ideal for different types of pets. For instance, the small pet pads are perfect for puppies, while the large pet pads are suitable for bigger dogs.

These pet pads are made using absorbent polymer material, which helps to lock in moisture and prevent leakage. This makes them an ideal solution for pets that are prone to accidents or those that are recovering from surgery. Additionally, the pet pads come with odor control features, which help to keep the environment fresh and clean.

Customable pet pads are perfect for use in various scenarios, such as when traveling with pets, during long car rides, or when staying in hotels. They are also ideal for use in homes, especially for pet owners who want to protect their floors and carpets from pet urine stains.

Pet owners can place the pads in different locations around the house, such as in the pet's crate, near the door, or in the bathroom.

These pet training pads are made in China and have been certified by CE, ISO9001, ISO1348, FDA, and FSC, ensuring that they meet the highest quality standards. The minimum order quantity for these pads is 60,000, and they come in different packaging details, such as 10pcs, 20pcs, and 30pcs. The delivery time for the pads is 10 days, and the payment terms are TT.

With a supply ability of 8,000,000 per month, pet owners can rest assured that they will always have access to high-quality pet training pads. The price of the pads ranges from $0.1 to $0.25, depending on the quantity and size of the pads ordered.

In conclusion, customable pet pads are an essential product for pet owners who want to keep their pets clean and hygienic. These pet training pads are versatile and can be used in different scenarios, making them a must-have for pet owners who want to take good care of their pets. So, whether you are a new or experienced pet owner, be sure to get your hands on these puppy pee pads and enjoy the peace of mind that comes with having a clean and hygienic environment for your pets.
